Mas. T. W. Wilkinson of Love's, Mississippi, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John H. Bowen, on Marshall avenue.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Memphis Hospital Medical College yesterday afternoon, Dr. T. J. Crofford, who had been unanimously nominated by the faculty, was elected to the chair of physiology in said college. This is a distinction worthilly conferred, and his unanimous election indicates that the faculty and trustees indicates that the faculty and trustees appreciate his merits and the valuable services which he has rendered the college as demonstrator of anatomy for the past three years. While the appointment is generally approved by the profession, it will be exceedingly gratifying to his friends and the public, among whom his professional skill has built for him a large and lugarities or precities. crative practice.

AMUSEMENTS.

Concert Next Week, The Mozarte have decided to give a ncert at their hall, 207 Main street, Les building, next Tuesday night, charging 50 cents for admission, the proceeds to go toward liquidating the indebtedness of the former organization. This will afford the many friends and admirers of the society an opportunity to place the Mczarts on a solid and firm foundation once more, free from any burdensome indebtedness, and at the same time listen to a de lightfui musical programme. Under an economical management, the so-ciety is contracting to new debts and the income is more than sufficient to the income is more than sufficient to defray all expenses, thus enabling them to lay aside a semall surplus to meet the payments on old notes. It would be deplorable for music-loving Memphis to allow this Mozarts to fall through on account of a small debt, for which the present organization was in no sense responsible, when a little timely assistance, from all would wine timely assistance from all would wipe out all old scares and give them a start which would lead to musical triumphs such as Memphis has never yet wit-nessed. Tickets will be on rale at various business-houses, and the limited capacity of the hall should be taxed to ils utmost.
